

Access to Guidant MDL Document Depository

The Guidant MDL document depository is available to any attorney or firm representative that currently has a case pending in the MDL litigation. The Guidant MDL document depository is an electronic based depository with access available through a website on the internet.

To gain access to the Guidant MDL depository please provide the following:

- a. Your name
- b. Firm's name
- c. Firm's address
- d. Contact phone number
- e. Email address
- f. Name and Court File Number for Case pending in the MDL

The above information should be sent to:

Ronald S. Goldser
Zimmerman Reed
651 Nicollet Mall
Suite 501
Minneapolis, MN 55402
E-mail: rsg@zimmreed.com

Once this information is verified you will be provided with a login and password for the depository. In addition you will be provided with user information on how to access and use the depository. The protective order issued by the Guidant MDL court on January 6, 2006, applies to all users of the Guidant MDL document depository. In particular all users of the depository should be aware of sections 2 and 3 regarding use and disclosure of confidential documents and information. Access to the depository is governed by PTO 6.