LITIGATION

This document relates to:

Raymond Simmons, Case No. 08-CV-187 (PAM)

v.

Pfizer Inc.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

This matter came before the Court on December 16, 2008 on Defendant Pfizer Inc.'s ("Pfizer") request for an Order to Show Cause why Plaintiff Raymond Simmons' ("Plaintiff") complaint should not be dismissed for failing to comply with the Court's June 30, 2006 Scheduling Order Relating to Phase I of Discovery ("Scheduling Order").

Plaintiff filed suit against Pfizer on January 22, 2008, by directly filing his complaint in the MDL captioned In re Viagra Products Liability Litigation.

Plaintiff has failed to produce a completed Plaintiff's Fact Sheet as required by the Court's Scheduling Order. Pfizer sent a copy of the Court's Scheduling Order and a Fact Sheet to Plaintiff on May 12, 2008 and the Fact Sheet was due to be returned on August 11, 2008. On August 26, 2008, Pfizer sent to Plaintiff a warning letter requesting that the Fact Sheet be completed and sent with signed medical authorizations no later than September 26, 2008. On October 1, 2008, Pfizer sent to Plaintiff a second warning letter requesting that the Fact Sheet be completed and sent with signed medical authorizations no later than November 1, 2008. As of December 16, 2008, Pfizer has not received a Fact Sheet or medical record authorizations from Plaintiff in violation of the Scheduling Order.

Therefore, based upon the facts presented, it is hereby ordered that:

1. Plaintiff Raymond Simmons has 45 days from the date of this Order to comply with the Scheduling Order by producing to Pfizer a completed Plaintiff's Fact Sheet and medical record authorizations.

2. If such production is not made within this time period or Plaintiff does not otherwise present to the Court reasonable cause for his delay in complying with the Scheduling Order, Plaintiff's case will be dismissed with prejudice.
