As required by law, the U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota will establish a Merit Selection Panel, comprised of attorneys and members of the community, to advise the Court on the reappointment of Magistrate Judge Leo I. Brisbois to a new eight-year term. The Court will publicly announce the Merit Selection Panel members at a later date.

The duties of Magistrate Judges are enumerated in 28 U.S.C. § 636 and Local Rule 72.1. The duties include presiding over initial proceedings in criminal cases; trials of misdemeanor cases, including petty offenses; pretrial matters and other proceedings in civil and criminal cases; conducting civil settlement conferences; and disposition of civil cases with the consent of the parties. U.S. Magistrate Judges are appointed by the U.S. District Court for an eight-year term and may be reappointed to successive terms.
