2012 ADVISORY COMMITTEE'S PREFACE ON STYLISTIC AMENDMENTS

The amendments to the Local Rules adopted by the Court in 2011 and 2012 are primarily intended to be stylistic. Some of the amendments are substantive, however, and the Federal Practice Committee has attempted to identify those substantive amendments in the advisory committee notes. An amendment should be presumed to be stylistic unless the accompanying advisory committee note identifies it as substantive.

The stylistic amendments to the Local Rules were part of an initiative to respond to the restyling of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure (1998), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (2002), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (2007), and Federal Rules of Evidence (2011). Because attorneys refer to both the Federal Rules and the Local Rules when practicing in federal court, the Committee attempted to minimize stylistic differences between the Federal Rules and the Local Rules to the extent practicable. In this stylistic initiative, the Committee also attempted to recommend to the Court rule language that would increase the accessibility and usability of the Local Rules.

2012 ADVISORY COMMITTEE'S PREFACE ON LR FORMS 3-6

Over the years, the Court has crafted LR Forms 3 through 6 to assist litigants to comply with the Local Rules. Form 3 (non-patent cases) and Form 4 (patent cases) were created to assist parties in conducting 26(f) meetings, preparing the 26(f) report, and preparing for the initial pretrial conference. Form 5 (patent cases) and Form 6 (non-patent cases) are template protective orders.

In 2012, the Court implemented several changes to Forms 3 and 4. Revised Forms 3 and 4 incorporate the amendments to LR 16.2 and LR 26.1 that require the parties to discuss at the 26(f) conference whether a protective order is necessary and the court to address any unresolved issues related to the protective order at the initial pretrial conference. Revised Forms 3 and 4 also require the parties to discuss the discovery of electronically stored information, a required element of the Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(3)(C) discovery plan.

The Court adopted additional substantive amendments to Form 4 at the suggestion of a group of judges and patent practitioners who had studied ways to make patent litigation more efficient. The group's study included interviews with all of the judges in the District and a survey of patent practitioners. The changes to Form 4 clarify requirements for various exchanges between the parties and submissions to the court in patent cases, including that the parties may amend their claim charts and prior art statements only by leave of court. Form 4 requires the parties file a joint patent case status report to address claim construction, including whether a claim construction hearing should be held and whether the parties request a pre-claim construction conference with the court. The option to request a pre-claim construction conference is new. The changes also provide alternative deadlines for expert discovery based on the issuance of the court's claim construction order.

Forms 5 and 6 were not amended but are expressly referenced for the first time in the text of the Local Rules, in LR 26.1.

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 4.2

The language of LR 4.2 has been amended in accordance with the restyling process described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on Stylistic Amendments.

In subsection (a)(2), the phrase "motion for permission to proceed in forma pauperis" has been replaced with the phrase "application to proceed in district court without prepaying fees or costs," as this is the actual title of the form available from the clerk's office. The phrase "in forma pauperis" is simply Latin for "as a poor person." For historical reasons, the phrase "in forma pauperis" has been retained in portions of rule's text, but in practice, a party who is permitted to proceed "in forma pauperis" is simply permitted to proceed without prepaying certain fees or costs.

Also in subsection (a)(2), the following sentence was deleted: "If permission to proceed in forma pauperis is later denied, the complaint shall be stricken." This sentence did not reflect the court's actual practice. In fact, if the court denies a party's application to proceed without prepaying fees or costs, the court gives the party an opportunity to pay those fees or costs before the court strikes the party's complaint.

Subsection (c) has been expanded to itemize the situations in which the clerk must file documents submitted by a party even when that party owes fees to the clerk.

The language of LR 5.3 has been amended in accordance with the restyling process described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on Stylistic Amendments. A cross-reference to LR 1.3 was eliminated as superfluous, and not for any substantive reason.

Local Rule 7.1 has been reorganized to add subsections (a) Meet-and-Confer Requirement and (d) Motions for Emergency Injunctive Relief.

Under new LR 7.1(a), parties must meet and confer with the opposing party before filing any civil motion, except a motion for a temporary restraining order, and file a meet-and-confer statement with the motion. Parties must file a joint stipulation if the parties agree on the resolution of all or part of the motion after the meet-and-confer statement is filed.

Rule 7.1(b) and (c), former LR 7.1(a)-(b), have been amended to clarify that parties should file motions and supporting documents simultaneously, rather than filing a motion first and its supporting documents later. In addition, the method of calculating deadlines for response briefs and (for dispositive motions) reply briefs has been changed. Deadlines for such briefs are now based on the filing date of the moving party's motion and supporting documents, rather than on the hearing date. Parties now have 14 days to prepare a reply brief for a dispositive motion, rather than the 7 days previously provided.

Rule 7.1(b)(4) was added to identify the types of motions that are considered nondispositive under LR 7.1.

Rule 7.1(c) has also been amended to better reflect the practices of different district judges with respect to scheduling hearings on dispositive motions. These amendments are not intended to change the long-established practice in this district of holding hearings for important civil motions, such as motions for summary judgment.

Rule 7.1(d) was added to provide guidance on filing motions for emergency injunctive relief.

Rule 7.1(e), former LR 7.1(c), was amended to clarify that after filing a timely post-trial or post-judgment motion, the moving party must contact the judge's calendar clerk to obtain a briefing schedule.

A reasonable request by a party for rescheduling of such a meeting is not a refusal to meet provided the party offers to meet with the other parties on a date within 14 days of the date initially requested for the meeting.
- (2) At the conference held pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), in addition to the matters specified therein, the parties shall discuss and include in their written plan and report to the Court a recommendation regarding whether Alternative Dispute Resolution would be helpful to the resolution of the case.(see Form 3 at(I)(3)). The parties' Rule 26(f) report shall also include a proposed deadline for making discovery-related motions(see Form 3 at (d)(1)(A)).

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 26.1

The language of LR 26.1 has been amended in accordance with the restyling process described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on Stylistic Amendments.

New LR 26.1(a)-(b) clarifies the parties' obligations to meet and confer and file a report under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) in the form prescribed in LR Form 3 (non-patent cases) or LR Form 4 (patent cases). New LR 26.1(a)-(b) includes matter previously found in LR 16.2 relating to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f). Forms 3 and 4 were revised as described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on LR Forms 3-6.

Local Rule 26.1(c) is new. Subsection (c) was added to require the parties to address whether a protective order is necessary and incorporates reference to LR Form 5 and Form 6. Forms 5-6 are presented as templates for protective orders; the court may on its own or on motion depart from the templates.

The language in LR 26.1(d) was previously found in former LR 26.1(f).

LR 26.2 FORM OF CERTAIN DISCOVERY DOCUMENTS [Abrogated]

(b) If the parties are unable to agree upon a plan for the disclosure and discovery of testifying experts and the substance of their testimony, they shall set forth in the joint report their respective proposals. The Court may make an order governing the process by which the identity of experts shall be disclosed and the substance of their testimony disclosed or discovered. (c) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the Court, disclosures and discovery regarding testifying experts are governed by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2) and (b)(4). [Former LR 37.1 adopted effective November 1, 1996; amended September 24, 2009; abrogated , 2012]

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 37.1

The language of new LR 37.1 (former LR 37.2) has been amended in accordance with the restyling process described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on Stylistic Amendments.

In 2012, LR 7.1 was amended to require parties to meet and confer before filing any motion, and to file a meet-and-confer statement with the motion. This change, along with other changes to LR 16.2 through 26.1, rendered former Rule 37.1 superfluous. Accordingly, former LR 37.1 was abrogated, and former LR 37.2 was renumbered as LR 37.1.

LR 37.2 [Renumbered as LR 37.1]

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 37.2

Former LR 37.2 was renumbered as LR 37.1 after former LR 37.1 was abrogated.

A party may also use any other manner of demanding a jury trial that complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b).

[Adopted effective February 1, 1991; amended ___, 2012]

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 38.1

The language of LR 38.1 has been amended in accordance with the restyling process described in the 2012 Advisory Committee's Preface on Stylistic Amendments.

The substance of the last sentence of the former version of LR 38.1 ("Failure to use this manner of noting the demand will not result in a waiver under Rule 38(d).") has been recast in a positive form. The rule now instructs parties that they may demand a jury trial either by the method prescribed in LR 38.1, or by any other method that complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b) — even if that other method differs from the method prescribed in LR 38.1.

Thereafter, the Court, or the Clerk of Court acting at the Court's direction, shall issue an order setting a schedule for the submission and consideration of the motion for attorney's fees and all supporting documentation.
 - (3) For good cause shown, the Court may excuse failure to comply with LR 54.3(b).
- (c) In all cases in which costs are sought under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(1):

 - (5) The filing of a bill of costs does not affect the appealability of the judgment previously entered.

(6) The Clerk of Court will promptly enter any costs taxed in the mandate of the Court of Appeals under Fed. R. App. P. 39(d). Appeal costs taxable in the district court under Fed. R. App. P. 39(e) will be taxed in accordance with this rule, provided that a bill of costs or amended bill of costs is filed within 14 days of the issuance of the mandate of the Court of Appeals.

[Adopted effective February 1, 1991; amended November 1, 1996; amended January 3, 2000; amended May 17, 2004; amended December 1, 2009; amended ______, 2012]

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 54.3

Former subsection (d), which stated that motions filed under this rule must comply with LR 7.1, has been deleted as redundant of LR 7.1.

LR 72.2 REVIEW OF MAGISTRATE JUDGE RULINGS

(a) Nondispositive Matters. A Magistrate Judge to whom a pretrial matter not dispositive of a claim or defense of a party is referred shall promptly conduct such proceedings as are required and when appropriate enter into the record a written order setting forth the disposition of the matter. Within 14 days after being served with a copy of the Magistrate Judge's order, unless a different time is prescribed by the Magistrate Judge or a District Judge, a party may file and serve objections to the order; a party may not thereafter assign as error a defect in the Magistrate Judge's order to which objection was not timely made.

A party may respond to another party's objections within 14 days after being served with a copy thereof. Any objections or responses to objections filed under this rule shall not exceed 3,500 words counted in accordance with Rule 7.1 and must comply with all other requirements contained in Rule 7.1(d) and (f).

The District Judge to whom the case is assigned shall consider such objections and shall modify or set aside any portion of the Magistrate Judge's order found to be clearly erroneous or contrary to law. The District Judge may also reconsider any matter sua sponte.

(b) Dispositive Matters. A Magistrate Judge assigned without consent of the parties to hear a pretrial matter dispositive of a claim or defense of a party or a prisoner petition challenging the conditions of confinement shall promptly conduct such proceedings as are required. A record shall be made of all evidentiary proceedings before the Magistrate Judge, and a record may be made of such other proceedings as the Magistrate Judge deems necessary. The Magistrate Judge shall file with the Clerk of Court a recommendation for disposition of the matter, including proposed findings of fact when appropriate.

A party objecting to the recommended disposition of the matter shall promptly arrange for the transcription of the record, or portions of it as all parties may agree upon or the Magistrate Judge deems sufficient, unless the District Judge otherwise directs. Within 14 days after being served with a copy of the recommended disposition, unless a different time is prescribed by the Magistrate Judge or a District Judge, a party may serve and file specific, written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations. A party may respond to another party's objections within 14 days after being served with a copy thereof. Any objections or responses to objections filed under this rule shall not exceed 3,500 words counted in accordance with Rule 7.1 and must comply with all other requirements contained in Rule 7.1(c) and (e).

The District Judge to whom the case is assigned shall make a de novo determination upon the record, or after additional evidence, of any portion of the Magistrate Judge's disposition to which specific written objection has been made in accordance with this rule. The District Judge, however, need not normally conduct a new hearing and may consider the record developed before the Magistrate Judge and make a determination on the basis of that record. The District Judge may accept, reject, or modify the recommended decision, receive further evidence, or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions.

(c) Consent of the Parties. In proceedings where the Magistrate Judge has been designated to exercise civil jurisdiction pursuant to the consent of the parties, in accordance with Title 28, U.S.C. Section 636(c), appeal from a judgment entered upon direction of a Magistrate Judge will be to the appropriate Court of Appeals as it would from a judgment entered upon direction of the District Judge.

(d) Format of Objections and Responses.

- (1) Word or Line Limits.
 - (A) Except with the court's prior permission, objections or a response to objections filed under LR 72.2 must not exceed 3,500 words if set in a proportional font, or 320 lines of text if set in a monospaced font.
 - (B) All text including headings, footnotes, and quotations counts toward these limits, except for:
 - (i) the caption designation required by LR 5.2;
 - (ii) the signature-block text; and
 - (iii) certificates of compliance.
 - (C) A party who seeks to exceed these limits must first obtain permission to do so by filing and serving a letter of two pages or less requesting such permission. A party who opposes such a request may file and serve a letter of two pages or less in response. This rule authorizes the parties to file those letters by ECF.

(2) Type Size.

- (A) Represented Parties. Objections or a response to objections filed by a represented party must be typewritten. All text, including footnotes, must be set in at least font size 13 (i.e., a 13-point font) as font sizes are designated in the word-processing software used to prepare the objections or response to objections. Text must be double-spaced, with these exceptions: headings and footnotes may be single-spaced, and quotations more than two lines long may be indented and single-spaced. Pages must be 8 ½ by 11 inches in size, and no text except for page numbers may appear outside an area measuring 6 ½ by 9 inches.
- (B) Unrepresented Parties. Objections or a response to objections filed by an unrepresented party must be either typewritten and double-spaced or, if handwritten, printed legibly.
- (3) Certificate of Compliance. Objections or a response to objections must be accompanied by a certificate executed by the party's attorney, or by an unrepresented party, affirming that the document complies with the limits in LR 72.2(d)(1) and with the type-size limit of LR 72.2(d)(2). The certificate must further state how many words (if set in a proportional font) or how many lines (if set in a monospaced font) the document contains. The person preparing the certificate may rely on the word-count or line-count function of his or her word-processing software only if he or she certifies that the function was applied specifically to include all text, including headings, footnotes, and quotations. The certificate must include the name and version of the word-processing software that was used to generate the word count or line count.

[Adopted effective February 1, 1991; amended May 17, 2004, amended May 16, 2005; amended September 24, 2009; amended December 1, 2009; amended _____, 2012]

2012 Advisory Committee's Note to LR 72.2

Technical amendments were made to LR 72.2 in light of changes made to LR 7.1. Specifically, all cross-references to LR 7.1 were eliminated, and a new subsection (d) was added to LR 72.2 to clarify that the format and filing requirements in LR 72.2 apply to objections and responses to objections filed under this rule in all cases, whether civil or criminal.
