POSITION OVERVIEW

The U.S. District Court Clerk's Office for the District of Minnesota is seeking a Court Reporter to office in Minneapolis, Minnesota with travel to Minneapolis, Duluth, Fergus Falls, and Bemidji as required.

The primary focus of the Court Reporter is to provide court reporting services to the Court. This position serves the Court en banc and can be called upon to cover court reporting of proceedings held before the Court, and for the transcription of those proceedings upon request.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

- Attend and record verbatim proceedings held before United States District and Magistrate Judges and transcribe those proceedings upon request. Provide realtime transcription to judges and chamber staff at all proceedings.
- Read back the court record as required.
- Create audio recordings of pleas, arraignments and proceedings in connection with the sentencing of criminal defendants.
- Transcribe digital audio recordings.
- Upload audio recordings, transcripts, reports and other documents.
- Work as part of a team of reporters for the judges of the court.

- Adhere to all requirements of the Court Reporter Management Plan for the District and the Guide to Judiciary Policy.
- Perform administrative duties as assigned.
- Requires occasional travel within the district, as needed.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Must possess at least four years of prime court reporting experience in the freelance field of service, in other courts, or a combination thereof.
- Degree from an accredited Court Reporting School or Program.
- The successful candidate must possess excellent organizational skills and communication skills to permit the production of transcripts within strict time limitations, work well under pressure, and be willing to work as part of a team of court reporters under the direction of the Clerk of Court in fulfilling the needs of all judicial officers of the court. The candidate must possess tact, judgment, poise, initiative, and maintain a professional appearance and demeanor at all times.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Special consideration will be extended to reporters who hold a Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR) certification or Registered Merit Reporter (RMR) certification.
- Prior judiciary experience is strongly preferred.
- Case Catalyst software strongly preferred. Transitioning to Case Catalyst will be required within 6 months of hire in order to coordinate with other Court Reporters on staff.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills are required. Strong organizational skills and the ability to prioritize a large volume of work are required.

CLASSIFICATION LEVEL

- Level 1 - must have a Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) certification from the National Court Reporters Association. ($104,065)

For levels above Level 1, the candidate must meet the qualifications for Level 1, plus the following:

- Level 2 - must have a Registered Merit Reporter (RMR) certification from the National Court Reporters Association. ($109,268)
- Level 3 - must have a Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR) certification from the National Court Reporters Association or equivalent certification. ($114,471)
- Level 4 - must have a Registered Merit Reporter (RMR) certification AND Certified Realtime Reporter (FCRR or CRR) certification. ($119,674)
- Level 5 – must be a Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR); AND have ten (10) years of reporting experience in the federal courts; AND be a Registered Merit Reporter (RMR). Level 5 is only applicable to current Official Court Reporters within the Judiciary hired before October 11, 2009, are currently at Level 5, and would transfer without a break in service. ($124,879)

ENVIRONMENTAL DEMANDS

- Successful candidate must be able to (with or without accommodation): (1) bend, (2) pull, push, and lift up to 20 pounds, (3) reach, (4) walk, and (5) sit for extended periods.
- Some travel will be required.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

The successful candidate will be required to maintain personal equipment and ensure it is compatible with court equipment. Official Court Reporters are responsible for purchasing office supplies; equipment including steno machines; computer hardware and software; postage and delivery charges. Official Court Reporters must provide wiring and data communications connections needed to provide Realtime services to parties requesting Realtime services.
