MEDIA ECF ACCOUNTS

Individual employees of the media may apply for a read-only Electronic Case Filing (ECF) account with the U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota. An ECF account allows a reporter to search civil or criminal case docket information by case number and to receive e-mail notifications when any document is filed in specified cases.

In accordance with the Electronic Public Access Fee Schedule for the U.S. Courts, only attorneys of record have free access to documents filed on-line. The current Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) per-page fee is $0.10 per page. The account holder must agree to notify the court if his or her employment is discontinued so that the account may be deactivated.

For more information and registration materials, see the court's web site at www.mnd.uscourts.gov and select the media link. For more information about PACER and its fees, visit www.pacer.gov.
