

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

IN RE: UPDATED GUIDANCE TO COURT OPERATIONS
UNDER THE EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES CREATED BY COVID-19

GENERAL ORDER
No. 5

WHEREAS on March 13, 2020, March 17, 2020, March 23, 2020, and March 26, the Court issued General Orders re: Court Operations Under the Exigent Circumstances Created by COVID-19.

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the President of the United States of America declared a national emergency in response to COVID-19.

WHEREAS on March 27, 2020, the President signed into law the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, or CARES Act, which includes provisions for the Judiciary, allowing videoconferencing for certain criminal proceedings.

WHEREAS on March 29, 2020, the Judicial Conference of the United States Court found under the CARES Act that emergency conditions due to the national emergency declared by the President under the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) with respect to COVID-19 have materially affected and will materially affect the functioning of the federal courts generally;

NOW THEREFORE, to implement the provisions of the CARES ACT and provide additional measures to protect Court personnel, the bar, the public; and to ensure due process, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that:

1. The Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court of the District of Minnesota on his own motion authorizes the use of videoconferencing, or telephone conferencing if videoconferencing is not reasonably available, with the consent of the defendant, or the juvenile, after consultation with counsel, for the following events:
 - a. Detention hearings under section 3142 of title 18, United States Code.
 - b. Initial appearances under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

- c. Preliminary hearings under Rule 5.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - d. Waivers of indictment under Rule 7(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - e. Arraignments under Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - f. Probation and supervised release revocation proceedings under Rule 32.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - g. Pretrial release revocation proceedings under section 3148 of title 18, United States Code.
 - h. Appearances under Rule 40 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - i. Misdemeanor pleas and sentencings as described in Rule 43(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
 - j. Proceedings under chapter 403 of title 18, United States Code (commonly known as the "Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act"), except for contested transfer hearings and juvenile delinquency adjudication or trial proceedings.
2. The Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court of the District of Minnesota on his own motion finds that felony pleas under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and felony sentencings under Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure cannot be conducted in person without seriously jeopardizing public health and safety. As a result, if a judge in an individual case finds, for specific reasons, that a felony plea or sentencing in that case cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice, the judge may, with the consent of the defendant after consultation with counsel, use video conferencing, or teleconferencing if video conferencing is not reasonably available, for the felony plea or sentencing in that case. Judges may also use this authority for equivalent events in juvenile cases as described in the CARES Act in section 15002(b)(2)(B).

3. In order to hold a proceeding by telephone conference, as authorized in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Order, the presiding judge must make a finding that videoconferencing is not reasonably available.
4. Under section 15002(b)(3) of the CARES Act, the authorization in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Order will remain in effect for 90 days unless terminated earlier. If emergency conditions continue to exist 90 days from the entry of this order, the Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court of the District of Minnesota will review this authorization and determine whether to extend it.
5. The General Orders entered by this Court on March 13, 2020, March 17, 2020, March 23, 2020, and March 26, 2020, remain in effect, except for the changes addressed in this Order.
6. This order will remain in effect until further order of the Court.
