Hearing on: Status Conference

I. Janssen Defendants Update

Counsel for Janssen stated that there were six (6) pro se cases and two (2) represented plaintiff cases remaining against Janssen Defendants. Counsel represented progress is being made in a majority of their cases. Further, Counsel noted for the Court the Schulte case has not yet been dismissed though plaintiff failed to serve any defendant.

II. Bayer Defendants Update

Counsel for Bayer represented they had five (5) remaining cases. Counsel stated that the Chauvin case will soon be dismissed. Counsel asked the Court for an Order to Show Cause in the Adams case, which involves a pro se plaintiff, who has not complied with PTO 18. The Court agreed to issue that order. Counsel informed the Court that progress was being made in the remainder of the cases with case specific discovery beginning in Jackson.
