

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

v. _____ )
 _____ )
 _____ ) Case No.
 _____ )

JOINT CONSENT TO LIVESTREAM AUDIO OF PROCEEDING

The _____ to be held on _____ has been identified by the Court as potentially eligible to participate in the audio streaming pilot program authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States and the Court’s General Order under which audio of qualified civil proceedings may be livestreamed on the Court’s YouTube channel with the consent of all parties. We acknowledge that the pilot program is limited to civil proceedings involving matters of public interest and that trials and civil proceedings involving jurors or potential jurors; live witness testimony; or sealed, confidential, or classified materials are excluded from the pilot.

In light of these requirements, we confirm that:

- all parties consent to stream live audio of the above-referenced proceeding on the Court’s YouTube channel (consent to stream this proceeding will not be construed as consent to stream live audio of any other proceeding in this case);
- there will be no live witness testimony; and
- sealed, confidential, and/or classified materials will not be presented or discussed.

We acknowledge that any communications taking place within the range of a microphone before, during, and after the proceeding may be heard by the public unless the microphone is muted.

We further acknowledge that any streamed content is not the official record of the proceeding and must not, in full or in part, be recorded, broadcast, posted, rebroadcast, or otherwise reproduced in any form by any person or entity outside of the federal judiciary.
